

LITERARY.

BARRY GRAY'S new book, "Out of Town," will be published by Hurd & Houghton about the 1st of December. It will contain the following illustrations: "Island of the Dead," by J. F. Weis; "Watching the Eclipse," by J. G. Brown; "A Day on the Bronx," by S. R. Gillett; "The Meeting of Day and Night," by K. Gifford, and "The Star Attacks the Captain," by W. H. Head. The last picture is to be a rural episode in the life of the author, who describes scenes and incidents pertaining to a quiet country life, from Spring to Midwinter.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY!

MR. CARLETON begs to inform the Trade that he will have ready in a few days the long expected Novel by Miss Evans, entitled

ST. ELMO.

A splendid new novel by Miss Evans—Remarkable as this author's previous novels were, the new one, "St. Elmo," must be acknowledged not only her masterpiece, but a masterpiece of English fiction. Brilliant in genius, magnificently written, it promises to rival in plot, and interest, "The Star Attacks the Captain." St. Elmo will be the finest American novel ever published.

Mr. Carleton's other works, recently published, are and other Poems and Ballads. By Algernon Charles Swinburne. Fifth edition now ready.

LAUS VENERIS

OUR ARTIST IN PERU.

A new comic book, by G. W. Carleton, author of "Our Artist in Peru." Fourth thousand.

THE CULPRIT FAY.

Holiday edition of this beautiful poem, with 100 illustrations, by Louisa May Alcott. Eighth edition.

These books are especially bound to cloth—set everywhere—and will be sent by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents per copy.

CARLETON, Publisher, New-York.

OUT TO DAY! A fine Forest Romance, of historic interest and exciting drama, constituting No. 111 of HEADLER'S DIME NOVELS, viz.—

THE SHAWNEES' FOE;

THE HUNTER OF THE JUNIATA.

BY W. H. GRANTON.

AUTHOR OF "FEDERAL SPY," "MAGGIE RYE," "TWIN SCOUTS," etc. Of all recent tales of Forest and Frontier Danger, this will speak as second to none. It is a clear-cut picture—such as every historical romance should be—exciting and impressive through the powerful style of George Washington is a pleasure to the reader. The author has written several other novels, which may be seen in the library.

A NEW NOVEL. BY SOLON ROBINSON, THE VETERAN AGRICULTURAL EDITOR OF THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

A novel by Soles Robinson, long and well-known as the Agricultural Editor of THE TRIBUNE, will be commenced to the WEEKLY TRIBUNE on December 1st. It is called

ME-WON-I-TOC;

A STORY OF WESTERN LIFE, INDIAN AND DOMESTIC. Though not Mr. Robinson's first novel, we do not doubt that this will mostly prove the worth of the man that in so many chapters of success full writing for the farm and the fire-side, and in behalf of the friend less poor of a crowded city has been understanding and instructive.

A true Indian novel is among the rarer and harder to find, but rich material for the work of the novelist is abundant, but how few fitful delineators have had the courage to touch it.

It is to the American writers in their honest life and character as authors and plotters as the author of Me-Won-I-Toc, how have been observed and observed to classify amid the varieties of the far more's and pioneer's life, East and West, and no writer for the daily press has had a keener relish for, and livelier sympathy with the fresh and tree-out-door life which enters into the elements of his novel.

Mr. Robinson's writings have always been marked by a quaint and direct force, pictures, simple but graphic of things as they really are, practical and minute knowledge of the useful and the beautiful as they are brought together into every day consciousness—these are some of the features of a style of word-painting with which the readers of this paper are familiar.

The new novel, which will be begun the first week in December, will continue during the Spring.

In addition to this, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE will contain, as usual, features of entertainment, instruction, and variety, surpassing those of any other journal published to benefit the home-life of the people, and justify the ever-ready support which has made it the most widely circulated paper in America.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE is printed on a large double-medium sheet, making eight pages of six broad columns each. It contains all the important Editorials published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE, except those of a strictly local interest; also Literature and Scientific Essays.

Review of the most interesting and important New Books; The Letter Box, our large page of correspondence; the latest News received by Telegraph from Washington and all other parts of the country; a Summary of all important intelligence in this city and elsewhere; a Synopsis of the Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature when in session; the Foreign News received by steamers; Executive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers Club of the American Institute, Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural information essential to country readers; Stock, Financial, Dry Goods and General Market Reports; making it both for variety and convenience the most valuable and interesting and instructive newspaper in the world.

The Full Observers of the American Farmers' Club, and the various Agricultural Reports, in each number, are richly worth a perusal.

THE NEW NOVEL GRATIS. Any person sending the money for ten copies of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be entitled to an extra copy gratis. The work, if published in book form, will be entitled to a copy gratis.

Price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE five cents per copy. For sale by all Newsagents.

A STANDARD NOVEL. "SKIRMISHING." By the Author of "Who Breaks—Pay," etc. Paper, $1.25.

"Every page tells: there is no book making about it; no attempt to do more than to tell the truth, and to tell it well; and it is told well, and the result is that we have a real work of art, such as the weary critic has seldom the pleasure of meeting with."—The London Leader. L. H. POLK & H. CO., 45 Broad-st., N.Y.
